'Matthews Ready to Deliver New Songs' ... Dave Matthews and Band are anxious to play their new songs during this year's current tour of over 40 shows between mid-June and September. The rocker says he can't wait to see if his band's new songs stand up to live scrutiny. (New York)

'Eagles' Farewell? ... coming off a Network TV special and a new DVD, it seems the 'Eagles' may be at the end-game, according to band sources. 'The Eagles Farewell I Tour,' was filmed last year in Australia along with a DVD, 'The Eagles Farewell I Tour: Live From Melbourne.' Don Henley has said that, 'because the Eagles have been unable to record a new studio album, 'Farewell I may turn out to be farewell, period.' The 'Eagles' are scheduled to assemble in July in Los Angeles to take another stab at recording. Meanwhile, Henley will play nine shows with former girlfriend, Stevie Nicks of 'Fleetwood Mac.'
